DECLARATION OF JOHN D. FRASER UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.132

I, John David Fraser, declare:

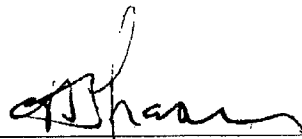

1. I am a co-inventor of the subject matter described and claimed in the above-captioned patent application.

2. Ries Langley and I are co-authors of a document including the contents of a conference presentation delivered at the Australian Society for Immunology 2003 on December 10, 2003. This document, disclosed to the Office on November 28, 2006, was cited against the present application in the office action dated January 19, 2010.

3. The other co-authors named in Fraser et al. are Bruce Wines, Natasha Willoughby, Thomas Proft, and Indira Basu. They did not make any conceptual contributions to the subject matter described and claimed in the instant application. They therefore are not named as co-inventors in this application, even though they were named as co-authors in Fraser et al.

4. All statements made herein of my knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patents issued thereon.

Date: 23rd April 2010

John D. Fraser
Professor.
